

Tristar receives RoSPA gold award for 3rd straight year

Tristar Transport LLC was named winner of the 2013 Gold Award for Occupational Health and Safety by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents (RoSPA). This is the third straight year the Dubai-based integrated logistics company serving the petroleum and chemical industries has won the award. During the past three years Tristar was also recognized for its efforts in managing occupational road risk (MORR) when it received the Gold award for 2011, the MORR Trophy for 2012, and the Highly Commended MORR Trophy for 2013.

May 14th, 2014
