

Water provided to Internally Displaced Persons in South Sudan

Tristar South Sudan donated a hand-powered borewell at the Internally Displaced Person (IDP) camp in Nimule, South Sudan. With this latest borewell the total number of bores inside the camp has increased to five which altogether provide water to 1,110 families. Before many people had to walk for almost 12 kilometers to fetch clean water for drinking

November 19th, 2014