Best Integrated Logistics Solutions
Company – Middle East

Tristar Group has been named the Best Integrated Logistics Solutions Company by the MEA Awards.

MEA Markets, a UK-based business publication dedicated to researching and publicizing major moves and events, has recognized the Tristar Group as the region's Best Integrated Logistics Solutions Company under its MEA Awards program.

The MEA Awards recognize firms in this vibrant and far-reaching business arena who are shaping not only their industries and regions, but the global corporate community.

Each award nominee is carefully scrutinized and judged on their performance over the past year, their willingness to innovate and even their competition to ensure that only the most deserving are named winners. Tristar was selected following a rigorous and in-depth nomination, shortlisting, voting and judging process – carried out by MEA Markets' network of global industry experts and in-house team.

Tristar won the award as Best Integrated Logistics Solutions Company because of the uniqueness of its business, portfolio of customers and not to forget our Health & Safety culture.
